LP Template for a Vocabulary Presentation Lesson

Elementary School

Student- Teacher:	Lesson Plan#
Lesson plan for the date of: Wednesday, 11 November 2026	Grade: 5 CEFR levels: Pre- A1/ A1
Topic/ Content: Nature words	Target words: air, dry, forest, grass, mountain, nature, river, sea
Textbook and Page:	Additional Materials: projector; whiteboard; one laptop per student, with headphones; the lesson site https://vaknin.github.io/nature-words/, shared in one Google Classroom post.

Highlight the relevant communicative modes:

Spoken RECEPTION/ Written RECEPTION	Spoken INTERACTION/ Written INTERACTION
Spoken PRODUCTION/ Written PRODUCTION	Spoken MEDIATION/ Written MEDIATION

Copy the relevant OVERALL CAN-DO STATEMENT/S (LEARNING OBJECTIVE) from the curriculum:

https://meyda.education.gov.il/files/Mazkirut_Pedagogit/English/Curriculum2020.pdf

1. “Can demonstrate understanding of a word by matching it to a picture” (Pre-A1)

2. “Can repeat phrases and short sentences, if spoken slowly and clearly” (Pre-A1)

3. “Can accurately and fluently read familiar words and chunks read aloud” (Pre-A1)

4. “Can ask people to do things with them, using a fixed expression (e.g., ‘Let’s play.’)” (Pre-A1)

5. “Can spell words according to the appropriate stage in developmental spelling” (Pre-A1)

6. “Can understand teacher talk and classroom discussions” (A1)

Write the MAIN LEARNING OUTCOME/S (How do you know you have achieved the learning objectives?)

Students can+ action verbs+ specific measurable outcome…

1. Students can say each of the eight target words aloud when shown its picture or gesture.

2. Students can match each of the eight words, heard or read, to its picture (at least 3 of 4 right in the laptop’s Last check).

3. Students can build each of the eight words from its letters on the laptop.

4. Students can say one full sentence, “Let’s go to the sea / mountain / river / forest!”, about a place they choose.

Students can say, read and spell the eight target words, aiming to reach the spoken/ written level at the word/ chunk/ sentence stage.

PREREQUISITES: (Prerequisites are defined as “linguistic or general knowledge, skills and learning strategies needed for the attainment of the objective/s):

Vocabulary Items: a few nature words the students already know in English (elicited in the opening, e.g. tree, water, sky).

Grammar patterns: none new; “Let’s go to the ___!” is taught as a fixed chunk.

Other: opening a laptop, Google Classroom and a link; wearing headphones; knowing the English letters to build words.

THE LESSON PLAN

	Time	Describe the activity: Write what the teacher says and does.	Write what the students can do. (What can the students do with the new words?)	Highlight the Communicative Mode:	Highlight the Interaction Mode: whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Read the rationale for the activities.
Routine	1'	The teacher says: 1. "Good morning". 2.How are you today? 3.What day is today? 4. What is the date? The teacher writes the day/ full date on the board. "Today is Wednesday, the eleventh of November."	S. can respond: "good morning, teacher." S. can say the day/ the full date.	Spoken/ written Reception Spoken/ written Production Spoken/ written Interaction Spoken/ written Mediation	whole class	to begin the lesson together in a pleasant manner. to allow some time for tuning in.
The First lesson of presenting	3'	Highlight the Presentation technique: 1.Creating a need 2.Spoonfeeding	S. can: raise hands and call out nature words they already know;		whole class teamwork	to raise the students' interest and involve them. to activate prior background knowledge.

vocabulary: Opening- (Lead-in) CREATING CONTEXT and presenting the TOPIC and the NEW WORDS: If this is the second lesson start with a REVIEW		3.Discovery Welcome to nature (laptops closed). Projector: title, goal, agenda. “Good morning! Laptops closed. Eyes on me.” “Look. Trees, water, a big sky. This is nature.” “Who likes a trip to the sea? Hands up! To the mountains?” “You know nature words in English. Tell me!” T writes six on the board; the class repeats each. “Today: eight NEW nature words. Read with me.” The class reads the goal: “I can say, read and spell eight nature words.” “First we meet the words. Then a quiz and a game on the laptop. Then we talk.” “Who can say in Hebrew what we do today?” Transition: “Stand up!” Praise: “You know so many nature words already!”	repeat each word after the teacher; read the lesson goal aloud together; say in Hebrew what the lesson will be about.		pair work individual work	The trip to nature (sea, mountains) is the context for the whole lesson; a student restating the agenda in Hebrew checks that everyone understood.
		What did we talk about last				To present the lesson topic within a consistent context that will be carried through the entire session.

		lesson? Remember we talked about…? What words did we learn/ who wants to choose a word and say it? I hid some pictures in class, who can find them and say what they are? (Or any other idea you have for the review part)
BODY 1- ORAL WORK- WORD STAGE- Spoken Reception and Spoken Production
	Time	Describe the activity: Write what the teacher says and does.	Write what the students can do. (What can the students do with the new words?)	Highlight the Interaction Mode: whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Read the rationale for the activities.
STEP: Repetition	8'	Stage 2: Meet the words (students standing). Projector: word cards in this order: nature, mountain, river, forest, sea, grass, air, dry; then all eight pictures without words. Per word (about 35 seconds): "Look.	S. can: repeat each new word at least four times, with its gesture; say the Hebrew meaning of each word;	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to know the pronunciation and the meaning of the target word before they learn how to read it.

		Listen." T presses Space: the recording plays and the word appears. T says it twice with its gesture. "Everybody!" three times: normal, whisper, loud. "What is it in Hebrew?" Gestures: nature, arms wide; mountain, hands meet in a peak; river, hand swims like a snake; forest, arms up like trees; sea, big waves; grass, wiggle fingers low; air, blow on your hand; dry, wipe your forehead. Show me! "I say the word. You show me with your hands. No talking!" Say it! "I show, you say." Trick: T points at the mountain: "Sea?" Class: "No! Mountain!" Transition: "Sit down. Don't open the laptop yet. Look at the screen." Praise: "Beautiful gestures, and I heard everyone's voice!"	show the right gesture when they hear a word, and say the word when they see its picture.		Choral repetition in three voices with a gesture links sound, meaning and movement before any reading.
STEP: Recognition	5'	Stage 3: Quiz time (demo, then each student alone). Projector: the three places, then a demo of one quiz question and one "Listen. Say the word." on the students' page. "Look. Three places: River, Forest and	S. can: follow four spoken instructions and repeat them in Hebrew; recognise each word they hear or read by pressing its picture or word; complete a short sentence by choosing the	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to first be able to recognize the oral word after it has been repeated several times. The quiz checks recognition of every Mountain. All three have the same eight words. First, a quick quiz. Then the laptop gives you a place to start. It is a good start for YOU today. Your place can change later, and that is OK. Points and cards are the same in every place. Eyes on your own screen." Demo: "I listen. I press. No right or wrong in the quiz, just try. When you see the microphone, press Allow." On four fingers: "One: open your laptop. Two: Classroom, 'Nature Words'. Three: press the link. Four: headphones on, press Start." Check: "Who can say the four steps in Hebrew?" Then "Go!" Quiz: eight questions, each word once: hear a word and press its picture; see a picture and press its word; complete a short sentence. The laptop places each student in River, Forest or Mountain. Praise: "Quick and quiet. Thank you!"	right word.		word once and starts each student at a level where they can succeed.

STEP: Reproduction			S. can…	whole class teamwork pair work	Students need to reproduce the word orally in a controlled environment.

				individual work
STEP: Production			S. can…	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to produce the new words out loud when given a prompt that fits the situation.

BODY 2- WRITTEN WORK- WORD STAGE- Written Reception and Written Production
	Time	Describe the activity: Write what the teacher does and says.	Write what students can do. (What can the students do with the new words?)	Highlight the Interaction Mode: whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Read the rationale for the activities.
STEP: Repetition			S. can…	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to repeat the teacher and say/ read the written word correctly.

STEP: Recognition			S. can…	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to recognize the written form and read the word.
STEP: Reproduction	18'	Stage 4: Play and race (laptops, headphones; T walks around). Projector: the eight pictures with words and an 18-minute bar. Each student plays four games in their place (River, Forest or Mountain), eight rounds each: 1. Listen. Say the word (record and play back). 2. Listen. Press the picture/word. 3. Look/Read. Press the word. 4. Build the word from letters. Then the Last check (a flag): four questions. At 11 minutes: "Look, a flag! Finish your word. Press the flag: four last questions." At 13 minutes: "After the flag you can race: 30 seconds. Beat your best! Or go to the next place. You choose." While they work: River screens first, "Play me your word." One specific	S. can: say each word into the microphone and listen to themselves; find the picture or word they hear, then the word that matches a picture or sentence; build each word from its letters; answer the four Last-check questions, then race against their own best score.	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to reproduce the word by reading it in a controlled environment. Three levels with the same eight words let every student practise at the right challenge, moving from recognition to building the word on their own.

		praise per student, for effort. At an offer to change place: “Good choice” either way. Transition at 18: “Stop. Headphones off. Screens half down. Eyes on me.” Praise: “You tried again and you got it. That is how we learn.”
STEP: Production			S. can…	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to read and understand the meaning of the word..
BODY 3- ORAL WORK- SENTENCE STAGE- Spoken Reception and Spoken Production
	Time	Describe the activity: Write what the teacher does and says.	Write what students can do. (What can the students do with the new words?)	Highlight the Interaction Mode: whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Read the rationale for the activities.
STEP: Presentation /			S. can…	whole class	Students need to repeat a sentence with a new word and understand its meaning.

Repetition				teamwork pair work individual work
STEP: Recognition			S. can…	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to recognize the oral word in a sentence.
STEP: Reproduction	4'	Stage 5: Let's go! (the whole-class speaking moment). Projector: two pictures and "Let's go to the ___!" Three slides: sea or mountain; river or forest; all four. Per slide: "The sea or the mountain? Show me with your hands!" "Say it, everybody: Let's go to the…!" "Sea people, stand up! Tell them!" To one or two volunteers: "Why the sea?" T says the answer back in full; the class repeats. Last slide: "Four places, one class trip. On three, say your sentence, loud!" Praise: "Full sentences from	S. can: choose a place and say "Let's go to the sea / mountain / river / forest!"; repeat a classmate's answer in a full sentence.	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to reproduce the word orally in a sentence in a controlled environment. A fixed, useful chunk lets beginners say a whole sentence about their own choice.

		everyone. That is real English!"
STEP: Production			S. can…	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to use the word orally in a sentence in appropriate situations.
BODY 4- WRITTEN WORK- SENTENCE STAGE- Written Reception and Written Production
	Time	Describe the activity: Write what the teacher does and says.	Write what students can do. (What can the students do with the new words?)	Highlight the Interaction Mode: whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Read the rationale for the activities.
STEP: recognition/ reproduction			S. can…	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to recognize the written word in a sentence and read it. Students need to write the word next to its translation or write it to complete a sentence.

STEP: Production			S. can…	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to read and write sentences using newly learned vocabulary words independently on the sentence level.
Communicative Activity/ies			S. can…	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	Students need to use newly learned vocabulary in real-life situations through meaningful interaction with peers, whether in structured tasks or open-ended conversations.
Closure	4'	Stage 6: What's missing? "Who beat their own best in the race? Stand up!" Applause. "Close your eyes! … Open! What's missing?" Four rounds with the word pictures. "How many new words today? Eight! Say all eight with your hands, fast!" "Read the goal. Thumbs up, middle or down. How many stars in your last check? Show me with your fingers." "Open your screen. Press 'Mark as	S. can: name the missing word from memory; say all eight words with their gestures; rate themselves against the goal and show their Last-check stars.	whole class teamwork pair work individual work	To review the new words they've learned and reflect on how they used them.It wraps up the lesson, strengthens learning, and gets them ready to use the words in real-life situations.

		done’. Close your laptop.” Praise: “Eight new words in one lesson. You worked hard in every place. I am proud of you!”
Homework			S. can…	teamwork pair work individual work	To review and practice new words and language skills outside of class. It strengthens students’ memory, encourages independence, and gives them extra time to work with English in a way that supports their learning.